om was all the stock, finished and unfinished, that the concern had on handabout $1,500 worth in all. The cracksmen attacked the safe and had torn open the outer door. They were drilling away at the "burglar proof" box inside when they were scared off.

Michael Fisher and Ike Levy, private watchmen, became suspicious about 2 o'clock this morning when they saw a

Treasurer of Stamford Y. M. C. A. Must Give $40,000 Bail in Embezzlement Case.

STAMFORD, Conn., May 15.-Judge Samuel Young, in the County Court of Heater street. Suddenly the stranger here, held George S. Wilson and De disappeared. Fisher and Levy sleuthed it through the buildings and found an opening employees arrested yesterday, on charges of embezzlement, in $40,000 and $10,000 ball respectively and bound them over for the September term of the Superior Court.

A number of Morse's friends raised the ball for him, soon after his arraignment before Judge Young, and he was released, but Wilson had to go to jall, pending the efforts of his friends to get together the much larger amount of bai set for him.

Biamford suffered a severe shook when Wilson, the manager of the savings de-partment of the trust company, was arrested on a warrant issued by Prose cuting Attorney Galen A. Carter, charging him with the embezsiement of $46, 65.67 from the company; subsequently Moores, second teller in the same insti-tution, was arrested on the charge of getting away with $11,632 of the company's funds.

It is only a month since Major William E. Holly, for twenty-five years a trusted employee of the Stamford Savings Bank, employee of the Stamford Savings Hank, another local banking house, was ar-rested for embezziement of $35,000. He is now at liberty on ball awaiting trial in the Superior Court. "Who next" is the question on everybody's lips. Wilson for six years has been treas-erer of the Young Men's Christian Asociation, for years he was treasurer of the Baptist Church and a member of sociation, for years he was treasurer of the Baptist Church and a member of its board of trustees, and for the last few years secretary and treasurer of the Wee Burn Golf Cidb. Moores is gopular and had grown up in the community. He is a member of a highly respected family.

Stock market speculation was the cause of Wilson's downfall, and probably the cause of Moores's. Wilson is said to have played the stock market on a margin through a trusted local friend, and Moores is believed to have done likewise. Wilson is said to have extended his thefts over several years.

Wilson has been with the bank since 1895; Moores since 1897. A clue to the falsification of the books was obtained accidentially in Wilson's accounts a week or so ago. Wilson, when confronted by Treasurer Daskam and divectors of the bank, made a clean breast and confession of his wrongdoms. Treasurer Walter D. Daskam, the real head of the bank as and to day:

"The methods employed by each were different, and both were ingenious, and involved a fairifying of entries by each is his own department, which, even with the modern system of accounting employed by the trust company, were practically impossible of detection without clue. This once secured, the entries were easily traced, and the bank is therefore able to speak with authority as to the exact amount of defalcation."

Wilson received, a salary of 22,200 per year, and Moores 31,800. Both maintained automobiles.
